CUTLINE FOR PHOTOS W/ "SENTINELS CHRONICLING 50 YEARS..."

Charter subscribers to the Missoula Sentinel could learn from Vol. 1, No. 1, which appeared March 6, 1911, that a plot to assassinate President Taft had been foiled and that the fashionable woman's Easter outfit would feature parasol and button shoes. The more than 50 years of social, economic and political history recorded in Missoula's afternoon paper from that first issue to the last, Nov. 30, 1960, has been made available to users of the University of Montana Mansfield Library by the Missoulain's gift to the University of its file of Sentinels.
